

We invite young artists from all over the world to participate on virtual exhibition

Art for Peace

The exhibition is organized to support The World March for Peace and Non-violence (www.theworldmarch.org) and is realized on web server deviantart.com, which units artists from around the world and offers great place for presentation.

Arts are collected in The World March for Peace and Non-violence gallery here:

For artists:

Interested persons can public their arts on www.deviantArt.com after registration (and to send a link to their work to deviant tania1966 who administrates the gallery), or they can send digitalized version of their pieces to e-mail tania1966@seznam.cz - if they do not want to register on deviantArt.

For watchers

The address of the gallery is accessible without registration and authors of art pieces agreed to present them during activities to support The World March, but not for commercial use. The functionality Sit back is wonderful tool, try it for sure ☺ And please – let us know when you present our exhibition on WM activity, it will make us pleased! (tania1966 on deviantart.com or tania1966@seznam.cz)

If you would like to comment some of pieces and say out your appreciation, you can register as deviant – observer, its free, easy and you get wide scenery of creative works of young artists. In addition you can express your admiration and support to „your“ artist for example by purchasing full registration, which would allow him/her to extend own possibilities to present their own work.

This virtual exhibition will be presented in Maryska Saloon during real exhibition of works of our local group of artists, in November 2009. Our real exhibition is formed to support the WM, too, and will be accompanied with other activities. More on www.mayska.cz, soon.
